Dear All,

I hope you are all well and coping with social distancing.

I have really enjoyed challenging pupils on times table rock stars and can tell you that one pupil has managed to beat me. Don't forget you can challenge me and your teachers by visiting the site. www.trockstars.com

Over the coming weeks we are trying to set up Google classroom to make it easier to share work. If we manage to overcome some technical issues we will contact you by email.

Staff and pupils alike will need to take a break from school work over the Easter holiday, however, new work will appear as well as links to useful websites once the Easter holidays are over.

If you need to contact either me or the school please use the following email addresses:

head@mullion-ji.cornwall.sch.uk or secretary@mullion-ji.cornwall.sch.uk

Enjoy your Easter break as best you can.

Take care.
