

Summer Term 1: 2019

Mrs Read

Our Topic	Magnificent Mountains
Maths	Number - Fractions, Decimals and Percentages Statistics- reading and interpreting bar charts and line graphs (through a weekly topic focus)
English	Narrative (The Water Cycle- based around Eric Carle's 'The Tiny Seed') Explanation texts (The Water Cycle) Scripts (with a vocabulary focus and linked to Computing)
Science	Animals Including Humans
Topic	Geography - The world's mountains and the water cycle. PE - Swimming and athletics Art - illustrations (linked to the water cycle) Music - Reading music and recorder lessons French - School life RE - What is right? Introducing morals. Computing - Radio Broadcasting (linked to Geography) PSHE - Safety First (linked to water safety)

Homework

Reading - Daily reading is vital. This should include discussion and questioning and last for around 30 minutes each day.

Home-learning- English or Maths (set and due on Fridays)

PE Days - Monday (PE kits) and Wednesday (Swimming Kits). PE kits should be in school at all times. This must include trainers.